

TWIN CITIES LIKE HARDING AT FAIR

G. O. P. Nominee More Popular Than Cox at Minnesota Fair.

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1920, by the Janesville Gazette.

St. Paul, Sept. 10.—Senator Harding made a hit in Minnesota. Democrats who saw his reception in the Twin Cities will hardly disagree that he was a much better than the senatorial nominee. He was to them a pleasant surprise—a dignified figure with plenty of human qualities to catch the imagination of a crowd ready from the outset to like him.

Comparison of the reception given Gov. Cox two days previous and that given Senator Harding is not difficult for the commonsense of anyone exactly the same. Both candidates talked at the same time fair. The democratic nominee faced a hostile crowd, the republican nominee stood before a reverent and attentive audience. They liked Harding's pictures before they saw the man; they were ready believers in his philosophy of anti-Wilsonism; they were born and bred republicans, and felt satisfied that Warren Harding came from good republican stock and would do.

Cox Wins Some Friends
Gov. Cox, on the other hand, won friends and made a good impression, but as one republican expressed, even George Washington couldn't carry Minnesota on the democratic ticket this year. The democratic nominee won more applause when he drove a horse around the race track than by his speech at the state fair, but he did get a rousing reception when he spoke at the Auditorium at night.

Senator Harding's first experience away from the state capital was a big success. The national republican committee selected a good place for the experiment. The Twin Cities are not a "normal" "normal," and most people here who cheered Harding imagine he will bring some sort of change in economic conditions that will relieve them of present day worries.

Crowd Told Harding
Both Gov. Cox and Senator Harding were asked not to talk politics at the state fair. The democratic nominee spoke of it, but he did so therefore only by implication. The republican nominee was in the hands of friends on the state fair board and took an entire liberty with the endorsement of republican pledges. And the crowd relished it. They understood his discourse on agriculture, liked the tone of his voice and the out of his mouth and gave him the kind of a greeting that was unmistakable both in warmth and sincerity.

In Minneapolis, the senator captured the town even more decisively. Streets that turned out hundreds to see Woodrow Wilson were packed from store window to curb. Some of the natives say Theodore Roosevelt alone got such a reception in Minneapolis. Certainly the republican committee, that Minneapolis, while generous in its applause at Wilson meetings, never stopped work in mid-day to the extent that the people did this time for Senator Harding.

Shakes Hands of Thousands
Similarly in the evening, the republican nominee stood in the state capitol and shook hands with thousands of people. For the first time the capitol was waited for a chance to greet Mr. Harding. It reminded one of white house receptions of ancient days, when long lines of guests waited patiently to shake the hand of the chief executive.

What does it all mean? The writer asked a republican friend whose judgment isn't as partisan as his political affiliation might indicate. He said it was the desire of the people to greet a new presidential candidate. Indeed, it suggested in its psychology the long-live-the-king enthusiasm which comes out of the body politic when there is a change in rulers in other lands.

Missouri is Satisfied
Eight years is a long time for a man to be president of the United States and Minnesota's greeting to Harding was that of a republican stronghold eager to see the clouds of government come down again by republican soldiery. They came prejudiced in favor of Harding and came away more than satisfied with their original judgment.

CRITICISM FOLLOWS APPOINTMENT OF PRINCE AS GOVERNOR GENERAL

Prince and Princess Arthur of Connaught.
Because he is a member of the British royal family, the appointment of Prince Arthur of Connaught to act as governor general of the Union of South Africa has stirred up much adverse criticism in Britain. The governor general is supposed to represent the British monarchy and not the king. Prince Arthur, a cousin of the king, is very popular, but it is not clear whether the personal charm of her and her husband will be sufficient to make them a success in their new field of work.

COX IN WEST SAYS HE WILL PRESENT IRISH CAUSE TO LEAGUE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Spokane, Wash., Sept. 10.—Gov. Cox of Ohio, democratic nominee for president, left a busy day today in western Washington. Fresh from a strenuous day in Montana, where last night he addressed gatherings at Butte and Anaconda, he declared he would "present the Irish cause" to the league of nations, in event of his election, the governor was on the Spokane Union station, for a conference with Washington democrats, for an address of an hour at the Spokane Independent fair grounds, and he was to deliver several speeches en route to Pasco and Walla Walla.

In his address in Montana last night, Governor Cox continued his attacks on the republican campaign funds. He stated that Will H. Hays, chairman of this republican national committee, should resign and that he intended to press for the resignation of the republican campaign manager. This position had confirmed his "slush fund" charges.

MEXICO CONSIDERS BUYING DESTROYERS

Mexico City.—Purchase of two gunboats and six destroyers is considered by the Mexican government, according to Gen. Plutarco Elias Calles, secretary of war and marine. Calles declared that destroyers can be bought from the United States government for $2,000,000. Calles told a group of newspaper men recently, "In view of the success with which these small craft were used during the war, I believe that it would be advisable for the Mexican government to buy three for the Atlantic service and three for the Pacific."

Calles and his staff are at work on a plan for universal military service, with which it is expected that the determined figure of 50,000 soldiers will be reached.

"I believe that the best military age is from 21 to 22 years, the war minister said. 'All able men are least self and best able to get along with each other, regardless of the walks of life from which they come.'"

Calles added, the mustering out of troops is progressing briskly and thousands of soldiers are being returned to civil life, where the government believes that they can best serve their country by tilling the farm and manning the factories. The plan is to have the higher officers co-operating in the movement, it is said, the only opposition coming from a few petty chiefs."

VIENNA RESORTS TO MANY NEW TAXATIONS

Vienna.—In its effort to find a solution of its financial difficulties, the municipality of Vienna is reporting that it has not approached in any country during the war. As a first step it has raised the deposit of gas consumer from between 100 and 200 crowns to 500 crowns per meter. No interest is paid on this deposit.

The new schedule of taxes contemplated a levy on principal of every property. There will be a tax of 2 per cent on all salaries of employees to be paid by the employer. Hotel rooms are taxed 200 per cent, and a graduated tax is levied on apartments to be paid by the occupant. On apartments renting for 10,000 crowns a month the tax will be three times the rent. If more than one domestic servant is employed, the employer must pay a high tax on each additional servant. 100 per cent bill in a restaurant, an occupational tax for certain forms of semi-professional and many kinds of new business licenses are to be imposed.

HARDING BACK HOME, PERSHING WITH HIM, VISITED BY NEGROES

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Marion, Ohio, Sept. 10.—Back from his 3 days' trip in the northwest, during which he made speeches in Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota, Senator Harding resumed his front porch schedule today with a list of engagements. He promised to occupy his attention for the next 3 or 4 weeks.

Several delegations of negroes came today to hear the nominee discuss public questions of particular interest to them. A trainload of republicans from Detroit, had been brought up to Marion, but it was postponed until tomorrow.

General Pershing, who came from Chicago on the Harding train, spent the night at the senator's residence and had another talk with him this morning. The general said there was nothing political in the conference, as he expected to take no part in the campaign.

In his speech to the negro delegations, the nominee declared his intention to secure the real measure of citizenship, and that too much encouragement had been given the idea of a something-for-nothing government.

"Citizenship," he said, "is not based upon what one can get, but that it is based upon what one gives. I say and I wish that I could speak through you to all Americans—let's serve."

"The American negro has the good sense to know this truth. He has heart to live it and I proclaim it to all the world that he has met the test and did not and will not fail. I say and I wish that I could speak through you to all Americans—let's serve."

CHILE AND PERU SETTLE DISPUTE

Serious Menace to South American Peace Is Relieved by Agreement.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Buenos Aires, Argentina, Sept. 10. Final settlement of Tacna-Arica question, which has been considered the most serious menace to South American peace, through the payment of Chile to Peru of $6,000,000 has been virtually agreed upon, according to a dispatch today to La Nación from Santiago quoting financial and diplomatic sources.

The message declared that after the Bolivian revolution which resulted in mobilization of the armies of Chile and Peru and threatened hostilities between the two countries, President Wilson suggested a conference of representatives of both nations.

Peru Announces Rights
As a result of conferences extending over three weeks, it is reported Peru agreed to renounce her rights to the provinces of Tacna and Arica, and the existing treaties affecting those provinces, upon receipt of the sum mentioned and enter into a reciprocal commercial treaty with Chile.

After the defeat of Peru by Chile in the war of 1879-1883, the provinces of Tacna and Arica were provisionally placed under Peruvian administration, but after 10 years a plebiscite should be held to determine whether they should revert to Peru. This plebiscite has never been held.

Situation Is Complicated
The situation was made complicated last year by a movement on the part of Bolivia to obtain access to the sea by seaport from Chile the port of Arica in Arica province.

NEW TREES PLANTED IN CANADIAN FOREST

Ottawa, Ont.—Three million pine and spruce trees have been planted in the cut-over and burned-over areas of wood pulp forests in Ontario this year, according to Dr. E. J. M. Dechemme, deputy minister of lands and forests of the province. This is figured at the rate of two new trees for every three cut down. This is the first step in a government campaign to re-establish the wood pulp forests on a productive basis as quickly as possible. Dechemme declared he would like to see a list of engagements before the manufacture of print paper. It is making an effort to induce manufacturers to utilize these trees. Dechemme said in view of the world shortage of print paper, the manufacturers will come to this in time. There are millions of tons of this kind of timber available in Canada and its use will add materially to the wood and pulp supply. The shortage at present, however, is due to lack of timber than to inadequate mill facilities.

"The present shortage has led to vastly increased investments in new mills and some of the new mills are being built in northern Manitoba and British Columbia which will exploit immense new sources of wood pulp supply."

13,000 OFFICERS ARE GIVEN TRAINING FOR MERCHANT MARINE

Washington—More than 13,000 merchant marine officers have been graduated from the shipping board's training schools since their establishment three years ago and 72 per cent of the graduates have been licensed for service as seamen on the board's recruiting service show.

Officers for the government-owned merchant marine are trained at Camp Swatara, near San Francisco, and Seattle. Four wooden ships operate on the Atlantic coast as combination training ships and cargo carriers. Each has a capacity of 200 apprentices and 1,200 tons of cargo.

WHEAT SPECULATION DISASTROUS IN WEST
Fargo, N. D., Sept. 10.—Congressman John M. Easer of North Dakota has sent a telegram to Attorney General Palmer, it was announced today, urging the attorney general to use the war time power vested in you to eliminate vicious speculation in wheat futures, which, the congressman declared, is disastrous in its effects on the producers.

The farmers of the northwest demand protection in the wheat market, congressman Easer declared, and he suggested the feasibility of fixing a minimum price of three dollars a bushel for wheat to protect farmers against this gross injustice.

The year would be divided into four 3-month periods, the first one or two quarters to be spent in college work and the subsequent quarters in practice under competent supervision in the offices of steamship companies and on board ships. The men would be paid for their services while employed in offices and on vessels and thus would be able to obtain their education without financial cost to them.

It would be sought to so arrange the course as to extend over a period of four years with a degree upon completion. Shipping board officials believe this would build up and have many other well trained men in all branches of maritime commerce.

$20,000 GUN CLUB IS ORGANIZED BY EDGERTON HUNTERS

Edgerton.—The sportsmen who recently purchased the property known as "Pierce's Point" for a game preserve, met at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce last evening and completed an organization by electing a set of officers. A board of directors consisting of members is composed of Will McIntosh, D. M. Ellington, A. T. Shearer, D. J. Brown, Nels Nelson, Grover Olson and George Blanchard. The organization is to be known as the Tebo Gun Club, and will be incorporated for $20,000, which has all been subscribed and paid up. Necessary committees were appointed to draft by-laws, make ground rules and to take the proper steps for incorporation. The property is east of access by a good automobile road and the buildings can easily be arranged to accommodate a large number of guests at one time. The location has always been found to be one of the best for duck shooting on the south shore of Lake Koshkonong.

DODGERS TAKE LEAD; SOX WIN IN EIGHTH NATIONAL LEAGUE

Brooklyn hopped into the lead in the National league pennant race by defeating St. Louis, 4 to 2, while Cincinnati slipped to second as the result of splitting a double header with Boston, 5 to 4, and 7 to 11. The Braves outpitched Dock in a close battle to give the Dodgers the top place again. Brooklyn won in the last two innings.

Four protesting decisions in the Boston-Cincinnati game, McQuillen was put out in the seventh of the second contest and Manager Stallings of the Braves was put off the bench. Boston hit the Reds hard. Alexander won the game for the Cubs over the Giants by his pitching and his timely hit in the seventh scoring two runners.

Philadelphia rushed Pittsburgh Thursday but the Pirates won, 7 to 6. Southworth's short fly falling safe to center drove home the winning run in the ninth.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

Staging an eighth inning rally, Chicago defeated Boston, 6 to 4, when Bush weakened, gave three passes and allowed enough hits for the White Sox to tie the count. The winning run was put over in the next stanza.

Washington defeated St. Louis twice, 6 to 5 and 2 to 1. The Senators won the first game with a rally in the eighth. Roth's homer in the ninth decided the second game.

With Babe Ruth batting out his forty-seventh homer, the Yankees sought to beat Cleveland Thursday but failed, 10 to 4.

Philadelphia at Detroit, rain.

BIG CROWDS OFF TO SAMSON-FAIRIES EVANSVILLE CLASH

Disappointed when old man Plunk dropped in around Evansville yesterday and ordered a postponement of the Samson-Beloit Fairies game, a big crowd of Evansville fans flocked their way to the Rock County fair this afternoon to be on hand to see their favorites clash with the Fairies at 2 o'clock.

Thursday's cancellation was a relief to Beloit because they were without the services of two of their pitchers, George Zabel, who had been pulled out of town and Hansen, who is confined to quarters doubled-up with stomach trouble.

It is Damon's turn to pitch against the Fairies this afternoon and in all probability he will take the mound. Brondergast is the likely pitcher for Beloit.

EVANS HOLDS LEAD OVER GOLFER ALLIS

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 10.—"Chick" Evans of Chicago, led E. P. Allis of Milwaukee 2 up when they had played half their 36 hole match in today's semi-finals of the national amateur golf tournament.

Thursday results: Chick Evans, Chicago, defeated W. C. Fowles, Jr., Pittsburgh, 7 and 6. E. P. Allis, Milwaukee, defeated J. Wood Platt, Philadelphia, 2 and 1. Francis Oulmet, Boston, defeated T. D. Armour, Scotland, 6 and 4. R. T. Jones II, Atlanta, defeated E. J. Wright, Jr., Boston, 6 and 4.

"BIG" BALL SCANDAL BETS DROP TO $3,000

Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10.—Extended investigation concerning the huge sums alleged to have been bet on the "fixed" game between the Chicago Cubs and Philadelphia last week Tuesday finally has established that not more than $3,000, the usual average wagered daily, was placed here.

More money was offered, but not accepted because local betters always trail with Meadows, who pitched for Philadelphia this day, when they he works. No huge sums were offered by "mysterious strangers."

The telegram sent from here to President Vasek of the Cubs, in the opinion of the larger operators, were from uniform bookies who could not round up their books and wired Chicago, expecting that the Cubs would switch from Hendrix to Alexander and save their money for them.

Aviators' Records Are Officially Ratified
Paris, Sept. 10.—The International Aeronautic congress in session here has officially ratified several records, including the record of 307 1/2 kilometers per hour, made by Sali Lecomte, the French aviator at Villacoublay, and the record of successive looping the loop, awarded to M. Prevost, of France, 302 times. The Swiss aviator Durrain failed in two attempts to land on the summit of Mount Blanc owing to poor visibility. Colonel Jefferson Denott Thompson and Sidney E. Ved are representing America at the congress.

Nebraska's Corn Crop Is Ahead of That of Last Year
Omaha, Neb., Sept. 10.—Only a killing frost can prevent Nebraska's corn crop from exceeding that of 1919 by 59,531,000 bushels, according to the September report by the federal bureau of crop estimates and state agricultural department. Production was forecast at 243,717,000 bushels as compared to 184,186,000 last year.

Varsity Students May Have to Room in Barracks
Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 10.—President Burton of the University of Michigan today recommended to the board of regents the purchase of barracks from Camp Custer, to meet the student housing situation here. According to Dr. Burton, rooms are not available for the nearly 12,000 students expected to enter the university this fall and available rooms, he said, are held at unreasonably high rentals.

SAMSONS, IN BEATING BAUMGARTNER, DOWN AN AMERICAN LEAGUER

When the Samson Tractors shut out the Northwest Motors of Detroit last Saturday, 3 to 0, with Baumgartner on the mound for the visitors, the fans did not know that the locals turned the trick on a big leaguer, with Lefty pitching.

Baumgartner is now of the regular staff of the Detroit Tigers and has been playing with the American leaguers all season. On Monday he went in as a relief twirler in both games against the White Sox. The fact that he lost does not lessen his ability as a major.

Thus the fans here are given further evidence of the quality of the Samsons. The swift augurs well for the chances against the Fairies this afternoon.

Woodmen of the World will play the Footville Cubs at Samson diamond here Sunday at 3 o'clock. Campbell and Thomas will form the Woodmen's battery. Snyder will twirl for the Footville team.

The amusement features at the Jefferson Co. Fair at Jefferson, Sept. 14-17, will include ten big free acts, base ball games, splendid horse races, a mammoth midway and air-ten ton.

ALLIS IS FEATURE WITH FINE PUTTING

Evansville, Sept. 10.—Francis Oulmet and "Chick" Evans were leading when the morning round of today's semi-final matches in the national amateur golf tournament were completed.

Oulmet was 2 up on Bobby Jones the Young Atlanta star, while "Chick" Evans was two up on E. P. Allis, of Milwaukee.

The Oulmet Jones card: Oulmet, out: 344 444 435-37. Jones, out: 344 444 435-35. Oulmet, in: 334 425 415-37-74. Jones, in: 334 425 415-35-71. The cards of the other match: Evans, out: 445 425 345-37. Allis, out: 455 534 536-40. Evans, in: 345 534 544-37-76. Allis, in: 335 534 533-35-73.

The feature of Allis' morning round was his excellent putting. He only missed one short one while Evans had several failures in this respect.

A special feature at the Jefferson Co. Fair, Jefferson, Sept. 14-17, will be the monster display of fireworks on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights.

PETER MANNING COPS $10,000 CHARTER OAK

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 10.—Peter Manning, champion 4 year old trotter Thursday won the $10,000 Charter Oak Stake, here.

The victory was easy, the son of Azoff having the speed of the field, and coming home on the stretch with a lead of nearly two lengths in each of the two heats. It was Murphy's seventh victory of the meeting and the third consecutive year that he has won the Charter Oak.

Billy Crozier, local driver, was the big winner of the afternoon, taking first with Ethel Chimes, a Murphy pacer, in the bitterly fought 210 pace, and winning the 2:16 pace with Billy Sunday, a member of the Pitman stable. The free for all for 2 year old trotting colts was unfinished at the end of the third heat. Worthy Chief, Jane The Great, and Sister Bertha, each winning a heat. This race will be finished tomorrow, get-away day.

Samson Nationals will bathe the Milton Junction Crescents at Charley Bluff, Lake Koshkonong, Sunday. Pire will pitch for the Samson seconds, with Dolan behind the bat. The Crescents' battery will be Mulcahy and Hirschfeld.

ALLIS SURVIVES AND ENTERS SEMI-FINALS OF NATIONAL GOLF

New York, Sept. 10.—All the international atmosphere was wafted out of the national amateur golf championship in Thursday's third round battles, and it became an event, not only of, by and for Americans, but one wherein three of the nation's stars of the first magnitude and one westerner of lesser brilliance are left in Friday's semi-finals.

Francis Oulmet couldn't very well have any other than eliminating Tommie D. Armour, the tall Scottish war veteran of the famous Black Watch regiment. After piling up a lead of five holes on the holder of the French championship in the morning, Oulmet succeeded in the afternoon in eliminating him by 5 and 4. It was the final twist of the lion's tail.

On the program for the semi-finals is a match which links followers have been longing for these several years. Oulmet will meet the terrible juvenile from Atlanta, Bobby Jones, for the honor of being the finalist in the lower half of the bracketing. Jones' contribution to golf championship was winning Thursday from the young Massachusetts title holder, Freddie J. Wright, Jr., whom he ousted by 6 and 4.

Pride of Milwaukee In the upper half are left Chick Evans, the only American who ever won the amateur and the open championship the same season, and another genial westerner, who is not so well known to golfdom. He is E. P. Allis, pride of Wisconsin in general and of Milwaukee in particular.

DRY CANDIDATE IS HEARD AT ST. PAUL

Watkins Says Fund Investigation Shows Cox Knows He Is Losing.

(By Associated Press.)
St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 10.—The country at large will not care 20 cents to find out the figures of any campaign fund, said Aaron S. Watkins, prohibition candidate for president in a speech at the Minnesota State fair today.

"It is said by some that all the national elections since the Civil war have followed the line of largest contributions," Mr. Watkins continued.

Swing Against Cox
"It may be true that the party which is on the way to victory may secure the largest campaign funds because a going concern always attracts followers and supporters. So the man who calls attention too largely to his opponent's campaign funds may be betraying the fact that the swing is against him."

"The real question of this year are the league of nations, the labor problem and the extinction of the liquor traffic."

Mr. Watkins devoted the major portion of his speech to a discussion of rural problems, the most important of which, he said, was self-protection and the steady decrease of rural population.

Advances Loyalty to Farm.
He said that the solution of the question was to develop a genuine loyalty to the farm. He concluded: "As long as boys and girls on the farm are taught that the great opportunities, intellectual, social and financial are in the cities, we shall cry out in vain against the exodus from the farm."

Earl of Derby Tells Why He Quit Ambassadorship

(By Associated Press.)
Paris, Sept. 10.—Reports that the resignation of the Earl of Derby as British ambassador to France was caused by a disagreement with the British government over the policy to be followed in Russia, were denied by the retiring ambassador last night. He declared to the Associated Press that last spring he had requested the British government to relieve him before the end of the year, owing to his desire to resume his activities in England.

Pedigreed Bull Brings $93,600 in S. America

(By Associated Press.)
Buenos Aires, Argentina, Sept. 10.—The South American record price for a pedigree bull was broken yesterday when the Hereford bull that won the grand championship at the International Stock show here, was sold for $93,600. The bull was bred in Argentina.

Cattleman Meets Wolves Like in Frontier Days

He LEFT HIS HORSE AND COMELED

Clearmont, Wyo.—Nobody thought there were gray wolves on Dead Man's Divide, less than a dozen miles from Clearmont, in the year 1920. The old frontier story tellers can thrill your spine with the stories of the old days, but there is a thriller of today and it happened just a fortnight ago.

Luther Zing was sitting in his homestead cabin when his herd of cows and calves grazing but a short distance away set up a great howling alarm. Zing has a big, black five-year-old gelding which is a strong favorite with him. He has trained the gelding until it will leave the herd out on the hills and come to him. His name is "Nigger," and it fits him well. Zing got "Nigger" up to his herd of cows and calves to see what was wrong and the closer he got the surer he became that something unusual was transpiring. He left his horse and crawled the last 200 yards and this is what he saw:

Fifty head of cows and calves had been rounded up by a mother gray wolf. She had stationed her eight half-grown pups around the herd and was circling the herd, biding at their tails to show her fine offspring how to do the trick. Zing had no gun, so he hastened back to Nigger. With a rush he ran into the fray. He reeked round the horse quickly and sharply. The bit broke, but Nigger knew something was up and went right on circling that menace on his neck. After a hard, quick run and a sure throw of his rope, Zing had one of the pups dragging behind his horse, but he kept right on after another. Within halting distance of the second pup he turned and rode his horse over the wolf in the rear and new money had been made. The horse finished him. The rider raised the pup to the saddle, loosened the rope and let the dead wolf drop. Then he took up the chase again with the mother wolf trailing him. She frothed at the mouth and showed her white fangs, but this didn't bother Zing, for he soon had that trusty rope over the

News and Views of Europe

By WILLIAM LAY
(Paris Correspondent of the Consolidated Press Association.)

President Deschanel of France may be forced to resign within the next few months unless his health improves. The public opinion grows important at this long confinement, for the French people like a Chief of State who can be counted on to appear at public occasions. His failure to preside at the great military review on Bastille Day, July 14, spoiled the whole affair.

As soon as it was learned that he could not attend, the news was circulated, through official inspiration, that the 14th of July was, after all, but a minor affair this year, inasmuch as the 4th of September will be the 50th anniversary of the Third Republic.

"That will be the big event this year," said the President's friends. "Mr. Deschanel will be there, and we'll have a military review that will make the 14th of July look like a volunteer fireman's parade."

It sounded quite logical, and public opinion swallowed it. However, the publicists got together and decided that this would be Deschanel's last chance to keep his job. If the appointed on the 4th of September, all well and good; if not, out with his head.

However, it appears that the 4th of September is a movable feast! For now it is announced that the 4th of September is on movable feast! festival that is to celebrate it, will fall on the 11th of November this year.

That gives Mr. Deschanel two months more of grace.

M. Millerand has got rid of his parliament for a few months, and Mr. Lloyd George is preparing to get rid of his. Until next October the destinies of Europe will be more than rock of another pup. He killed this in the same manner as the first and picked out a third wolf. Nigger did his best, but he couldn't make it. He had run himself out and stopped panting and covered with white foam. The cattleman tied the dead pup to his saddle and got back to his cabin at 11 o'clock that night.

Luther Zing came to Clearmont, bringing the wolf pups he had killed. He soon had a bunch of men rounded up for a final hunt. Two days after the first killing 16 hard riders rode the hills along the Dead Man's Divide until they located the wolf den. They dug the den out, but the old mother gray wolf had taken her remaining six pups and fled to her other less dangerous hunting grounds.

over in the sole hands of the Big Two.

Not that either the French or the British parliaments, as at present constituted, have offered much of an obstacle to the Big Two as they pleased. They talk a lot, but they always vote right.

Nevertheless, even talk is embarrassing to a Prime Minister without a policy, who is, like M. Millerand, hoping for "something to turn up." And that is the position of Messrs. Lloyd George and Millerand.

They don't want to make peace in Eastern Europe—not today—because they have a suspicion that they might get better terms tomorrow. And they don't want to make war because wars on foreign soil are decidedly unpopular.

The result is negotiations—"looking toward peace," but never quite seeing it. Open negotiations with the Bolsheviks, that pleases the liberals; break them off, that pleases the conservatives. It's a damned nuisance, break them off again and so on. Everybody is more or less satisfied.

Keep your eye on the little pen, gentlemen! The more you look, the less you will see.

From an American point of view, the French in London is exasperable. And, say the French, "the same to you!"

When the American army embarked for home it had immense stocks of American cigarettes and tobacco, which it sold to the French government.

The government, through its tobacco stores, has been forcing this merchandise on the French smoker, much to the latter's disgust. The usual French brands are scarce, and will be until the war stocks are exhausted. When a consignment of French tobacco arrives at a tobacco shop there is a line of customers a block long until it is exhausted.

The American in Paris is happy. He gets the popular American brands—the kind that cost 25 cents a pack—of 25 for two francs, about 15 cents. And as the French "regie" is not noted for selling at a small profit, one wonders that the French government paid for this American stock.

"The little sacks of 'roll your own' are 50 centimes, about 4 cents."

Table-cloths and napkins are practically unknown in Germany. The small restaurants have paper ones. Generally you get none at all.

I heard of one fashionable place in Cologne that was the proud possessor of a complete set of table linen, however. This set is trotted out on Saturday night and used until Wednesday, when it goes into the wash.

The scarcity of cotton during the war is the reason. If your table linen wore out you could not replace it. And white cloth of all kinds was commandeered for surgical dressings.

War Minister Churchill's idea of using the Germans to fight the Bolsheviks was not as crazy as it sounded. The French press made a tremendous howl at the idea of putting the German army on its feet again, and the hocklers of the government in the British parliament tried to get Lloyd George to disavow the Churchill idea. The significant thing, however, is that Mr. Lloyd George did nothing of the sort.

If you accept Mr. Churchill's hypothesis, the proposal is quite logical. With Poland erased from the map, or sovietized, Germany will be in direct contact with Russia. This means that Germany must either be friendly to Russia, or hostile to her. Which will you have?

Naturally France does not want to see Germany's military power restored, even for the purpose of beating back the Bolsheviks. But if the only alternative is a Russo-German alliance, a sovietized Germany and a sovietized Germany, he greatly prefers the former.

And if the truth be told, the French probably feel the same way. But as yet they hope that there may be a third way out.

The Germans hold Metz for nearly fifty years, and of course they pretty thoroughly Germanized it. The French have let it back for twenty months—and don't ever let anybody tell you the Germans are more thorough than the French!

I stopped at Metz for a few hours between trains and decided to use the time in a walk about the city. I walked the main streets and the side streets in all parts of the town.

Some of the children spoke German, and I caught snatches of German here and there among the adults. But not a single shop-sign or other public notice in the German language. Not a word of written German anywhere. I asked if there were a legal prohibition of German signs. No, there wasn't. But it is common accord the people of Metz have suppressed every reminder of German occupation.

Except, of course, the monumental public buildings erected by the government of Wilhelm II.

Incidentally, the name of the city is no longer Metz (pronounced Metz) but Metz (pronounced Metz). Don't forget that when talking to a Frenchman.

Brooklyn Transit Line Resumes Night Service

(By Associated Press.)

New York, Sept. 10.—After its first night of service since its 8,000 employees went on strike 13 days ago, the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company announced today that subway elevated and trolley trains and cars would be run nightly hereafter. Fifty-one trolley lines, of a possible 77, with 737 cars, were operated this morning and 132 subway and elevated trains of 578 cars.

Another Boston Trust Company Is Closed

(By Associated Press.)

Boston, Sept. 10.—The Prudential Trust company of this city, with a capital of $200,000 was taken over by Bank Commissioner Joseph C. Allen today.

The troubles of the bank are not connected with those of other banking institutions recently closed by him, the commissioner said. The bank has been subject to steady withdrawal of deposits and its loans were not in good condition.
